PREFACE

The Election Commission of India is an autonomous Constitutional body established on 25th January, 1950. The Constitution of India (Article 324) has vested in the Election Commission of India the superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of electoral rolls for, and conduct of, elections to the Parliament and the Legislature of every State and to the offices of the President and Vice- President of India.

At the UT level, the election work is supervised, subject to overall superintendence, direction and control of the Commission, by the Chief Electoral Officer of the State, who is appointed by the Commission from amongst senior Civil Servants of the State Government in consultation with the Government concerned. CEO is a full time officer and has a small team of supporting staff.

At the district and constituency levels, the election functionaries are the District Election Officers, Electoral Registration Officers and Returning Officers. They utilize the services of other officials in the performance of the election related work. They all perform their functions related to elections in addition to their other responsibilities. During election time, however, they are available to the Commission, more or less, on a full time basis.

During the period of their deployment on election related duty, they all are deemed to be on deputation to the Commission and are subject to its superintendence, control and discipline.

VISION AND MISSION

- Preparation of defect-free Photo Electoral rolls of all the thirty Assembly Constituencies.
- To provide round the year election related service including inclusion of name in the Photo Electoral Roll and issue of Electors Photo Identity Cards.
- Attainment of optimum level of interaction with all the citizens of Puducherry to resolve their election related grievances to their satisfaction.
- Ensuring free and fair poll as and when it takes place.
- To strive for increased participation of electors in enrollment and elections.

ORGANISATION STRUCTURE

Under Article 324 of the Constitution, the superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of the electoral rolls and the conduct of all elections to the Lok Sabha, Rajya Sabha and to the Legislature of every State and the elections to the offices of President & Vice-President are vested in the Election Commission of India, which consists of the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) and two Election Commissioners (ECs).

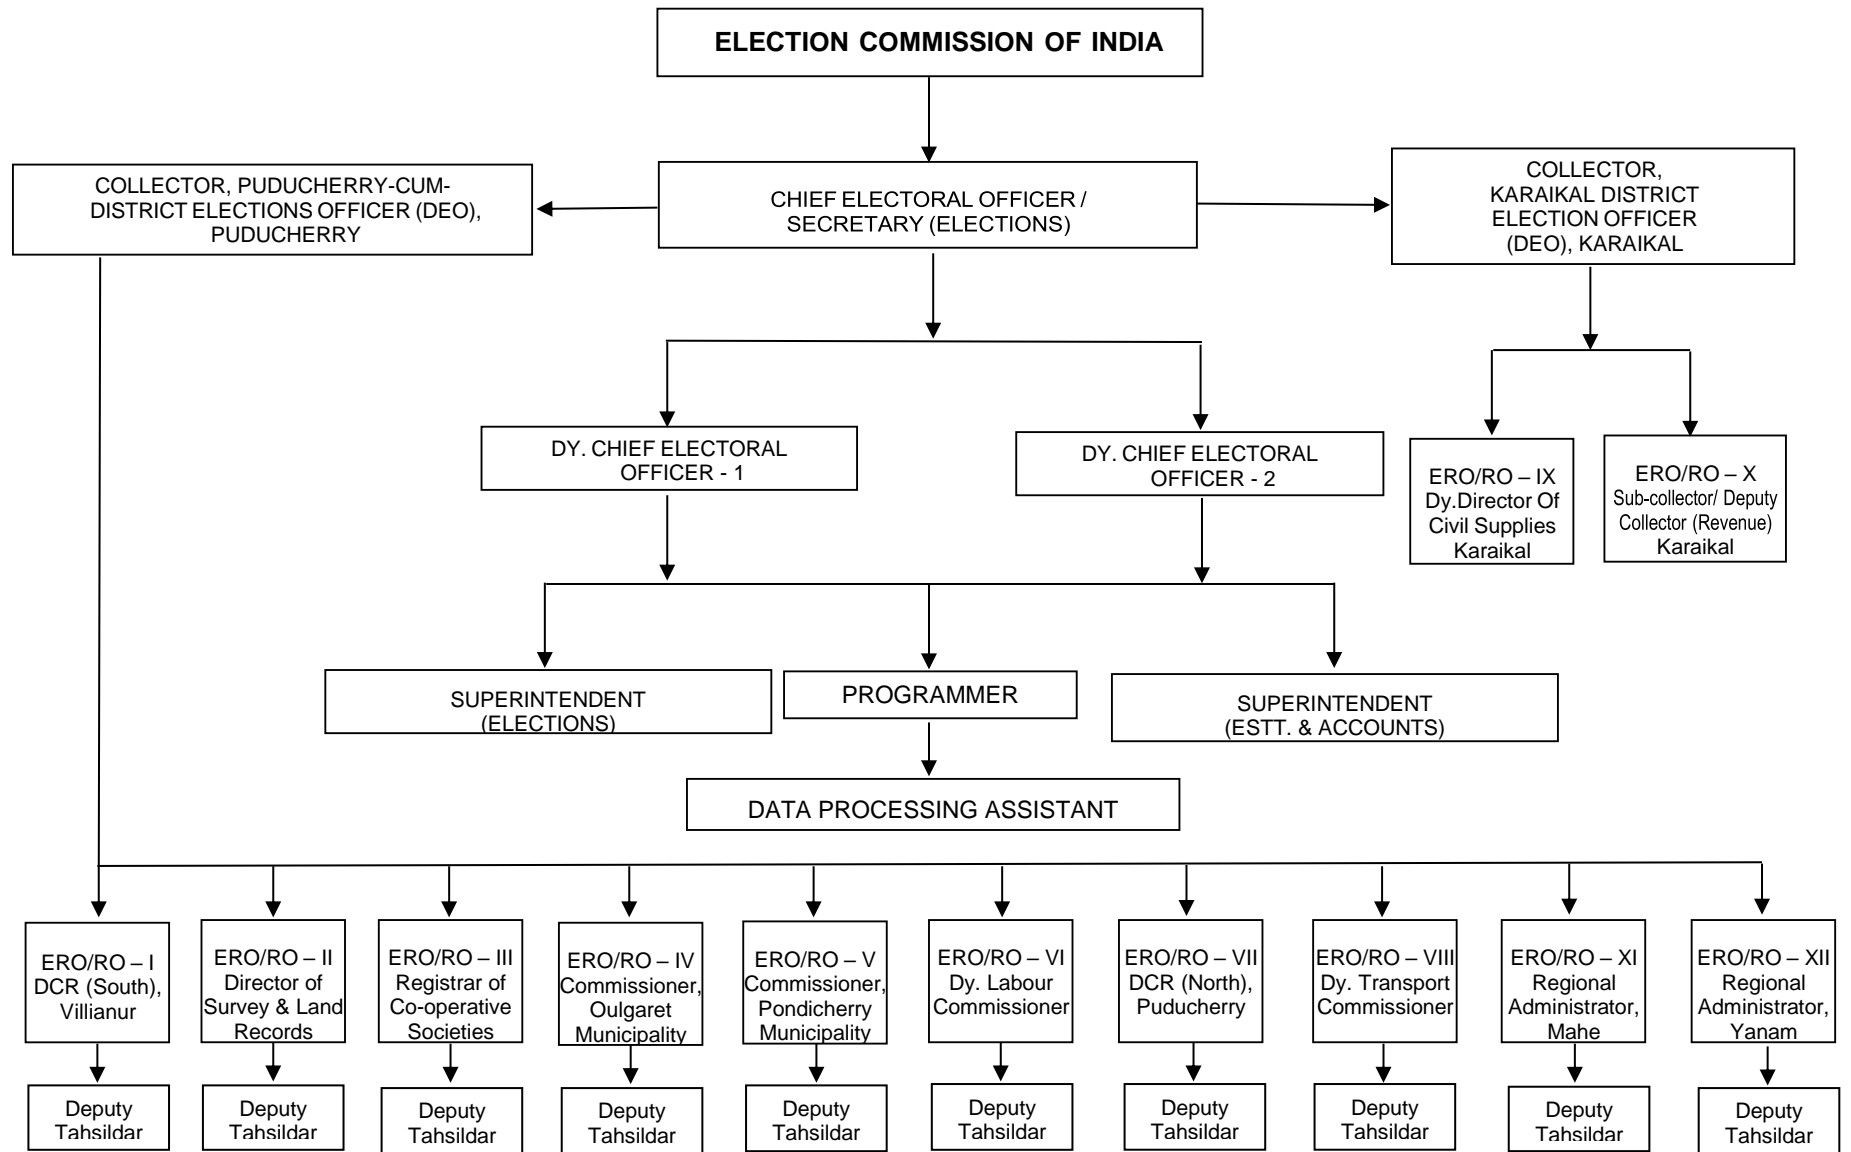

At the UT level, the Chief Electoral Officer and the officers and staff working under him supervise the election work subject to the overall superintendence, direction and control of the Election Commission of India.

At the district level, the District Election Officers (DEOs) (generally the District Collector-cum-District Magistrate) and the officers and staff working under him supervise the field work relating to all election related activities subject to the overall superintendence, direction and control of the Chief Electoral Officer.

At the Assembly Constituency level, the Electoral Registration Officers (EROs), assisted by Assistant Electoral Registration Officers (AEROs) and staff working under them are responsible for execution of all election related activities pertaining to preparation & maintenance of electoral rolls in respect of the Assembly Constituencies allotted to them under the overall superintendence, direction and control of the District Electoral Officer.

In so far as the U.T of Puducherry is concerned, the Electoral Registration Officers are also designated as the Returning Officers (ROs) for the Assembly Constituencies allotted to them. They are assisted by Assistant Returning Officers (AROs) and other officials. As Returning Officers, they are responsible for the conduct of elections under the overall superintendence, direction and control of the District Electoral Officer.
